SUBJECT: Evaluation Plan For COINS

As you are aware, objectives for the COINS experiment have not been approved. Therefore it is necessary to postpone the writing of an evaluation plan for COINS until such objectives are approved. The objectives of the experiment are a vital and necessary input to the objectives of the evaluation plan. The evaluation plan must be designed for the specific objectives which are approved.

It is recommended that we keep informed on the existing projects which pertain to the methodology of performing evaluations, and be prepared to start writing an evaluation plan when the objectives of the experiment are approved.
